| Every man is tempted               | Eve was tempted by the Serpent – “Has God said?”            | David saw a woman washing herself  | Achan was tempted by the Babylonian garment, silver and gold   | Ananias sold a possession for a value of money.                                       | [He cared not] for the poor, but because he was a thief, Judas had the money box; and he used to take what was in it. (John 12:6)   |
| And enticed by his own lust | It was a delight to her eyes and desirable to make one wise | The woman was very beautiful to look upon  | “I saw among the spoils”   | “And he kept back a part of it.”  | Judas Iscariot went to the chief priests. (Matt 26:14)  |
| When lust has conceived            | She took of the fruit                                       | David sent and inquired after the woman.   | “I coveted them”   | He brought only a certain part to the apostles, declaring it to be the whole portion. | “What are you willing to give me if I deliver him to you?” And they counted out thirty pieces of silver. So from that time on he sought opportunity to betray him. (Matt 26:15,16)        |
| It gives birth to sin       | She ate of the fruit and gave to her husband                | He took her and lay with her   | “I took them”  | “You have not lied to men but to God.”  | Now His betrayer had given them a sign, saying, ‘Whomever I kiss, He is the One; seize Him.’ Immediately he went up to Jesus and said, “Greetings Rabbi!” and kissed Him. (Matt 26:48,49) |
| After sin has been accomplished    | The eyes of both of them were opened                        | She returned into her house  | “I hid them in the earth, into the midst of my tent”   | Heard the words of judgement  | Then Judas, His betrayer, seeing that He had been condemned, was remorseful and brought back the 30 pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders. (Matt 27:3)                         |
| It brings forth death              | The Lord judged them and sent them out of His presence      | The sword shall never depart from your house...I will raise up evil against you out of your own house. I will take your wives before your eyes and give them to your neighbours & he shall be with your wives in the sight of the sun. | All Israel took Achan, his sons, his daughter, his oxen, his asses, his sheep, his tent and all that he had and stoned him with stones, and burned them with fire, after they had stoned them with stones. | “He fell down and breathed his last.”   | Now this man purchased a field with the wages of iniquity; and falling headlong, he burst open in the middle and all his entrails gushed out.”  |
